SEVEN NAMED TO UM BUSINESS SCHOOL BOARD

MISSOULA --

Seven business leaders from across Montana and the nation will lend their expert advice to the University of Montana's business school.

Named to three-year terms on the Business Advisory Council for the School of Business Administration were UM alumni Marilyn Foster Parker of Missoula, owner of European Classics in Whitefish; Richard E. "Rick" Hart, president of Mountain West Bank of Great Falls; Frank W. Shaw of Great Falls, president, district manager and board director for Norwest Bank Montana; Bud Clinch of Helena, director of the Montana Department of Natural Resources and Conservation; Michael J. McDonough of Irving, Texas, president of business relations for GTE Telephone Operations; R. MacMillan Fraser of Boulder, Colo., business and investment consultant for Montex; and Jessica Boisvert of Las Vegas, Nev., reseller account representative for Microsoft Corp.

Council members meet twice a year on the Missoula campus to advise Dean Larry Gianchetta on the operation of the School of Business Administration.
